

CONSULTANT DETAILS

ronan gleeson

MA MD FRCOG FRCPI

consultant in obstetrics & gynaecology
senior lecturer, trinity college, dublin

Dr Ronan Gleeson qualified from Trinity College Dublin in 1980. He worked in Dublin and then trained in obstetrics and gynaecology in London and Melbourne. He returned to the Rotunda Hospital in 1991 as Assistant Master and was appointed to a consultant post in 1995.

He is a member of the Institute of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists and served as Convenor of Postgraduate Meetings from 1993–95 and honorary secretary of the Institute from 1995–98. Following this he was the Institute representative on the European Board & College of Obstetrics and Gynaecology (EBCOG) for three years.

As a senior lecturer attached to Trinity College Dublin, Dr. Gleeson is responsible for the teaching schedules of both undergraduate and postgraduate students from Trinity attending the Rotunda.

He has an interest in ultrasound scanning in obstetrics and runs the Twin Clinic in the Rotunda. He also runs a gynaecological team in the Rotunda and is currently Director of the Gynaecological Service. His special areas of interest in gynaecology are endometrial ablation procedures, hysteroscopic surgery and prolapse repair.

He is married and has two children.

To contact the Private Clinic
please telephone 01- 874 2115 between the hours of 8.30am - 4.30pm.